

Neath The Stars That Shone So Bright

Matthew Cooke

'Neath the stars that shone so bright Shep-herds watch'd their flocks by night Sud-den-ly, in glor-ious guide, Came an an-gel from the skies, Stood be-side them, did not chide them, Told the tid-ings glad and free, "Christ In-car-nate deigns to be."