

O Sing We A Carol

A. H. Brown

O, sing we a Ca-rol all blithe and free, And fit for our Christ-mas

Morn, For the world is as cold as the cold can be, Though its Lord on this Day was born, Though its Lord on this Day was born: 'Tis a win - try time for the rich and poor, And who should be driv'n from a Christ - ian's door? 'Tis a win-try time for the rich and poor, And who should be driv'n from a Christ-ian's door? And who should be driv'n from a Christ-ian's door?
