

See, The Morning Fair And Bright

Arthur H. Brown

$\text{♩} = 105$

See, the morn - ing fair and bright Hail the Sa - viour come to save

All man - kind from end - less night! On this day Him - self He gave;

Left His Fa - ther's throne a - bove, Crown'd with mer - cy, peace, and love.

Chorus

Hark! The her - ald an - gels sing; Make the heav'n - ly man - sions ring; All the hosts of heav'n pro - claim Christ is born, Christ is born, Christ is born in Beth - le - hem.