

God's Dear Son Without Beginning

English Traditional

God's dear Son, without beginning, Whom the wicked Jews did scorn; The only wise, without all sinning, On this blessed day was born; To save us all from sin and thrall, When we in Satan's chains were bound; And shed His blood to do us good With many a purple bleeding wound.